Super Late Model Notes: Justin Mondeik wrapped up his second straight State Park Speedway super late model championship with his seventh feature win of the season on season championship night. He has 10 feature wins in weekly shows over the past two seasons and also this year led the class with eight top-five finishes, one more than both Jason Weinkauf and Travis Volm with seven top-5s each... Weinkauf finished the season with his third straight top-two finish... Tom Gee raced for the first time at State Park, campaigning his car that Lou Goss raced twice earlier this year at SPS... Todd Handrick also took a break from helping other drivers in the pits to race for the first time this season. Handrick was formerly a regular in the limited late model class at State Park and also is the former owner of the track... The top six finishers in the point standings were the six drivers to race in every feature this season at SPS.

Pure Stock Notes: Mitch Stankowski clinched his first-ever track championship at State Park Speedway, coming in second to Jeff Spatz on the final night for his eighth top-three finish. Stankowski finished with one feature win this season but finished as runner-up in five other features and ended Butchie Schramm's string of three straight pure stock crowns. Stankowski also owns an asphalt-dirt double this season, as he also won the IMCA Stock Car championship at Tomahawk Speedway on Saturday nights... Spatz finished the season with his second feature win, and also won the feature on season championship night for the second straight year.

Mini Stock Notes: Eric Breitenfeldt dethroned friend Garret Strachota at the top of the mini stocks, edging defending champion Strachota to win his first-ever championship at State Park Speedway. Breitenfeldt rode a big start to the season to the title, winning five of the first six features, the difference in a season where both Breitenfeldt and Strachota recorded 12 top-five feature finishes in 12 races... Strachota won his second feature of the season in the finale, joining Breitenfeldt and Hunter Landwehr (three wins) as multiple feature winners... Brad Abt finished second in the final feature of the season for the best feature run of his rookie season... Ashley Schoone finished fifth in the final standings but was third in the class with eight top-five feature finishes.

Mini Mod Notes: George Seliger closed out his fourth championship in the mini mods class with yet another feature win, his eighth of the season. He won eight of 11 features in the class this year and finished in the top five in all 11 feature races... John Lietz and Dale Louze both posted their best feature runs of the season in the finale, with Lietz coming in second and Louze finishing third... Snappy Joe Kuehn finished fourth in the feature and finished second to Seliger in top-5 finishes with nine in the 10 weeks he raced... John Lietz closed out the season winning his final three heat races to tie Kevin Tessmer for second in the class in heat wins, just behind Jimmer Lietz's four heat wins... Four drivers made it for all 11 feature races this season: Seliger, Tessmer, Keagen Benz and Chad Ferge... Twelve of the 18 drivers to race in the class this year won at least one race, either a feature or a heat race.
